RELEASE:

March 15, 2017

P&K partners with Brandt to serve Oklahoma farmers.

Full line of premium grain handling products now available locally.

Brandt Agricultural Products Ltd is pleased to announce the newest addition to their rapidly growing dealer network; Oklahoma-based P&K Equipment will now be providing premium-quality Brandt products to their local farmers.

"This is an exciting day for us. P&K is a highly-respected group with a solid history and a strong reputation and we're pleased to be adding them to our team," says Brandt Agricultural Products Southern U.S. Sales Manager, Russell Solomon.

With 10 locations across northwestern, central and northeastern Oklahoma, P&K gives Brandt a strong presence in an important market; enhancing the company's ability to provide premium-quality grain handling equipment and proactive, locally-based service to Oklahoma farmers.

"When choosing additional lines for P&K, we are careful to add lines that complement John Deere, and the high quality and customer reliability that our customers expect," says P&K Sales Manager, Drew Combs. "The Brandt line delivers the highest quality and reliability in grain-handling equipment and will be a great addition to our existing product lines at P&K."

Brandt Agricultural Products engineers and manufactures the most complete line of premium grain handling equipment on the market. Their complete line of augers, conveyors, grain vacs, grain carts, heavy harrows, and grain bag loading and unloading equipment is distributed across the United States, Canada, and around the world.
